II. Adjustments to the Agenda

None

III. Public Comment

Alice Hartley voiced her concern that, even though the new positions are good, the integrity of our buildings are maintained and a priority in the budget. Also wondered if the search for a Special Ed Director has ceased, since we have not had a full-time director in many years. Chairman Jewers and the Superintendent both addressed the concerns, relaying the buildings are a priority and a significant increase is in the budget for maintenance. We have employees stepping up to fill positions, including the Superintendent filling the Special Ed Director position.
