

Dear Senior Parent:

Do you have questions about paying for college?

Join us on Tuesday, September 27th at 6:00 pm to learn how to shop for a college, search for scholarships and how to apply for financial aid.

Who should attend?

Any student and their families that are want more information on:

- How to pay for college
- How & when to apply for financial aid
- How to know if a college is affordable
- What should students be doing now

When & Where?

Stearns High School Library

Tuesday, September 27th at 6:00 pm

Why is this important?

- There are scholarships for all age groups, it's never too early to start looking.
- You can maximize your financial aid by applying early and taking advantage of scholarship searching now, don't wait!
- Starting the conversation about paying for college early helps make the college decision process less stressful for the student
- Mainers have access to a college savings program that has matching grants – the earlier you start, the better

Who will be there?

A College Access Counselor from the Finance Authority of Maine (FAME) will be talking with students & families to help them navigate the process of paying for college.

For more information about FAME go to www.FAMEmaine.com/Education

We look forward to seeing you!

Sincerely,

Susan Buzzell, LSW/School Counselor
